Dear Mr. Byrne:

We are very pleased to learn that Mr. Richard Bly of your staff will address the Midcareer Course on Wednesday, 17 April 1985, from 9:00 to 10:30 a.m. in Room 916, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4600 North Fairfax Drive, Arlington, Virginia. The title of the segment is "International Narcotics Trafficking and the US Enforcement Effort."

This Midcareer Course consists of 30 middle-level professional intelligence officers from all parts of the Agency. They represent a broad range of backgrounds and experience. The average Agency service for this class is about 13 years. You should know that we are continuing to use the tasking exercise initiated in the previous running. A group of seven students will have been assigned a narcotics tasking problem revolving around cocaine from Colombia.

A few days before Mr. Bly's talk, the training assistant for the course, [redacted] will call your office to confirm the session and make parking and graphic support arrangements. If you have any questions before that time, please contact Richard [redacted] the course director, on [redacted]
